How We Use Your Information Privacy Notice for Parents

Parent Privacy Notice

Introduction

This notice is to help you understand how and why Kneller Hall School (the School, 'we') collect personal data about you and what we do with that information. It also explains the decisions that you can make about your information.

If you have any questions about this notice please contact the Data Protection Lead.

What is "personal data"?

Personal data is information that is about you and from which you can be identified.

This includes your contact details, next of kin and financial information. CCTV images, photos and video recordings of you are also personal data.

Where we get your personal data from and who we share it with

We obtain your personal data from a number of different sources. We get a lot of information from you (eg, when you complete the application form). We also get information from other sources such as our teachers, your child, your child's previous schools, other members of your family, other pupils and their parents, as well as from people outside of the School such as the local authority.

We will also share information with these people and organisations where appropriate. For example, if you tell us about something that has happened at home, we will share this with your child's teachers if relevant.

The sections below contain further information about where we get your personal data from and with whom it is shared.

The purposes for which we use your information and the lawful bases

We use your information in order to:

1. Carry out our obligations and enforce our rights under our contract with you;
2. Teach your child and our other pupils;
3. Look after your child and others such as other pupils;
4. Enable the School to comply with its legal obligations, to assist the School regarding the management and operation of the School and to advance and protect the School's interests, objects and reputation; and
5. Fundraise, market and promote the School. For example, by using photographs in the School prospectus, on the School's website or in social media.

Our lawful bases for using your personal data are as follows:

- Contract: We will need to use your information in order to perform our obligations under our contract with you and for you to perform your obligations as well. For example, we need your name and contact details so that we can update you on your child's progress and so that we can contact you if there is a concern. We may also rely on this basis where you have asked us to do something before entering into a contract with us.
- Legitimate interests: This means that the School is using your personal data where this is necessary for the School's legitimate interests or someone else's legitimate interests.

Specifically, the School has a legitimate interest in educating and looking after its pupils, complying with its agreement with you for your child to be at the School, making sure that we are able to enforce our rights against you, for example, so that we can contact you if unpaid school fees are due, investigating if something has gone wrong and protecting promoting and improving the School. This basis applies to all of the 5 purposes listed above.

- Public task: This allows the School to use personal data where doing so is necessary in order to perform a task in the public interest. This basis applies to purposes 2, 3 and 4 above. For example, we are performing a task in the public interest when we teach and look after your child.
- Legal obligation: The School might need to use your information in order to comply with a legal obligation, for example, to report a concern about your child's wellbeing to Children's Services or in relation to inspections. Occasionally we may have a legal obligation to share your personal data with third parties such as the courts, local authorities or the police. More detail of when we will do so is set out below.
- Vital interests: In limited circumstances we may use your information to protect your vital interests or the vital interests of someone else. For example, to prevent someone from being seriously harmed.

The section below contains more information about our purposes for using your personal data and the lawful bases.

Our purposes and lawful bases in more detail

This section contains more detail about the purposes for which your personal data is used, the applicable lawful bases as well as further information about sources and recipients. It does not say anything different to what's set out above but goes into a lot more detail.

We have also used a colour code system so that you can see which bases we are relying on for each of the purposes described at paragraphs 1 to 43 below. LI means legitimate interests, CT means contract, PI means public task, LO means legal obligation and VI means vital interests. So if we have (LI, PI) that means we are relying on both legitimate interests and public task for that purpose.

- 1 The School's primary reason for using your personal data is to provide educational and pastoral services to your child (LI, CT, PI).
- 2 We will use information about you in order to process your application for your child's admission to the School. We obtain information about you from the admissions forms and from your child's previous schools. We also may get information from professionals such as doctors and local authorities (LI, CT, PI).
- 3 We will have information about any family circumstances which might affect your child's welfare or happiness. This is to help us provide appropriate care and support to your child (LI, CT, PI).
- 4 We will need information about any court orders or criminal petitions which relate to you. This is so that we can safeguard the welfare and wellbeing of your child and the other pupils at the School (LI, CT, PI).

For example, we keep some old photographs so that we have a record of what the School was like in the past. Information held in our archive may be made publicly available but this would only be done in compliance with data protection laws (LI, PI).
- 16 We may use your information in connection with legal disputes (LI, PI, LO).

As you will see from the above, in some cases we will rely on more than one lawful basis above for a particular use of your information. In addition, we may move from one of the lawful bases listed above to another as circumstances change. For example, as a safeguarding matter becomes more serious, we may start to rely on legal obligation to share personal data with the local authority in addition to the other lawful bases which are noted for safeguarding purposes.

We use contractors to handle personal data on our behalf for the following purposes:

- IT consultants who might access information about you when checking the security of our IT network;
- we use software, apps and websites to help us with teaching, and to help us provide pastoral support to our pupils. For example, we use an app which allows pupils to access homework which has been set by their teachers; and

- we use third party "cloud computing" services to store some information rather than the information being stored on hard drives located on the School site.

If you have any questions about any of the above, please speak to the Data Protection Lead.

More sensitive types of personal data

The School has extra obligations in relation to some types of more sensitive personal data. This applies to the following categories of information: personal data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, trade union membership, genetic information, biometric information, health information, and information about sex life or orientation and information about criminal convictions or offences. When the School handles these types of information it will usually be doing so because:

We may ask for your consent to use your information in certain ways as an alternative to relying on any of the bases above. For example, we may ask for your consent before taking or using some photographs and videos if the photograph or video is more intrusive and we cannot rely on legitimate interests. If we ask for your consent to use your personal data you can take back this consent at any time.

Any use of your information before you withdraw your consent remains valid. You can speak to the Data Protection Lead if you would like to withdraw any consent given.

Sending information to other countries

When the School sends personal data outside of the UK, we have to consider if the other country has the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. Some countries are considered by the UK Government to have adequate rules and this includes all of the European Economic Area and some other countries, such as, New Zealand, Argentina and Japan.

In certain circumstances, we may send your information to countries which do not have the same level of protection for personal data as there is in the UK. For example, we may:

- store your information on cloud computer storage based in the USA.

If you have any questions about the safeguards that are in place please contact the Data Protection Lead.

For how long do we keep your information?

We keep your information for as long as we need to in order to educate and look after your child. We will keep a lot of information after your child has left the School, for example, so that we can find out what happened if you make a complaint.

In some cases we may keep your information for a longer time than usual but we would only do so if we had a good reason and only if we are allowed to do so under data protection law.
