

Radnor House Ethos and Aims

Ethos

- Our core values are courage, excellence, perseverance and respect, and everything we do as a school is underpinned by these values.
- We educate the whole child in an atmosphere of care and mutual respect.
- We celebrate the diversity, equality and inclusivity of our school community – ‘All different, all equal, all belong.’
- We value being part of Dukes Education, whose motto is that ‘Together We’re Extraordinary’.

Aims

- To deliver the highest quality teaching through an innovative and inclusive curriculum to ensure our learners revel in learning, make excellent progress and are prepared as well-rounded and engaged social and digital citizens.
- To deliver highly effective and inclusive pastoral care to support fully the wellbeing and aspirations of our pupils.
- To provide a co-curricular programme that offers the broadest and most balanced age-appropriate opportunities to all the children, with high participation rates, the pursuit of outstanding performances and enhanced health and wellbeing.
- To provide excellent staff development in a culture of ambition, shared values, high trust and empowerment.
- To ensure our marketing and admissions processes fully reflect the ethos and aims of the school to current and prospective parents and that the school maintains its excellent reputation and demand.
- To provide an environmentally and financially sustainable school which provides safe, compliant operational services within a superb current and future estate as we plan the move to Kneller Hall.

Signed:

Amy Cavilla
Principal
September 2025