Psychology Teacher required for a fixed term contract

This is a superb opportunity for someone with flair, enthusiasm and commitment to be part of our dynamic and forward-thinking school.

We wish to appoint a Psychology Teacher for a 12-month maternity cover contract, who has the ability to teach the popular Edexcel A Level syllabus to our Sixth Form pupils. The ideal candidate will be someone whose enthusiasm for, and love of, psychology will permeate the whole school. A willingness to establish a range of co-curricular opportunities, reflecting your personal interests is greatly encouraged.

The successful candidate will join a team of innovative and highly motivated teachers who constantly strive to provide the finest education and ever-expanding opportunities to get the very best out of our pupils, while fostering a love of learning through delivery of high quality, exciting and active lessons.

Radnor House is a 9-18, selective, co-educational, independent day school set in historic buildings on the banks of the River Thames in Twickenham, just thirty minutes from Central London. It was judged as 'Excellent' in all categories by the Independent Schools Inspectorate in February 2020. The relatively small size of the school (c.440 pupils) enables us to focus on the individual needs of all our pupils, fostering a supportive and collaborative community where pupil success is regularly celebrated.

We offer a competitive salary, with extensive opportunities for CPD and career development, alongside a clear recognition of staff wellbeing.
